No problem! That's very sweet of you to thank me, though. It was my pleasure.

Subject: Thanks, Kate!

Dear Kate,

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to job shadow with you in Deal Control. I loved your metaphor for the wheels of the clock and how all the cogs in the wheels need to match up. I also enjoyed seeing how "scraps" are used and that there is trading between desks within Enron. You do such a great job at being in the moment and keeping your cool when new tasks come your way throughout the day. Your time and patience in answering my questions and helping me understand how it all fits together is much appreciated.

With gratitude,
Emily
