Subject: Flight time on December 13 to Las Vegas

Guys, there is quite a number of us dealing with this problem - what are our solutions?

Could we have a corporate jet available for folks stuck in the A&A PRC? Other?

Subject: Flight time on December 13 to Las Vegas

Sorry that my arrangements with Jana G. in the Associates Program to change the date of the Associates PRC were over-ruled by Charlene. I had agreed with Jana that swapping the dates of the Analysts and Associates PRC meetings was a great solution. Despite the fact that the program had not checked with us as PRC reps to see if December 13 was a convenient date, Charlene developed an interesting concern over potentially inconveniencing the directors who are PRC reps for the Analyst PRC. And I see that you were drafted into facilitating the whole meeting!

I am scheduled on the 5:35 flight from IAH to Las Vegas on the afternoon of the 13th. I would have to leave downtown by 4:15 to make that flight. I have been asked to confirm those flight arrangements so that a ticket can be issued. Since you will be in charge, will this flight time work? --Sally
