Mark/Rob -

Good news is hard to come by these days in the Enron emerging market world so I thought that I would pass this along.

We still need to work on repatriation/conversion issues to get our money out but at least it sits safely in an Enron account in the meantime.

Bill Krenz worked very hard on this matter under trying circumstances. The head of the HEPCO negotiating team through a cup at our business guy, Don Bunnell, and shattered a tea pot. Shards from the pot hit Don in the face and he had to be hospitalized. He is apparently fine now.

two of which will hit Monday (we have chopped confirmation from the relevant banks that the last two wires were initiated, but it was too late in the business day to get the funds today). At day's end RMB 271 million of RMB 341million hit today. We'll follow up Monday for the rest, but dont anticipate any problem.
