Reagan,

FYI, it would bother me if Marvin called our outside counsel. If you want me to call David, just ask. I'll be glad to do it, although I don't suggest bugging the other parties' counsel too much. It uses up relationship capital, and it causes the counterparty to incur expenses they may not want to incur.

Another FYI - I don't much like Enron commercial folks calling Enron outside counsel unless we've discussed it in advance. It violates Enron policy. So once we have outside counsel on board, you still deal directly with me, and I'll manage the outside resources. It really works better that way.

Kay-

I just called David Hunt and actually got him on the phone. He said he was reviewing Marvin's and Bob's comments on His changes. He committed to getting those to us directly.

Reagan,

I don't suggest it, especially since this is not an "off the shelf" deal. There are so many moving parts to this deal it could slow it down in the long run to get someone else involved for a few days. It is like getting a new commercial guy involved for 4 days. I'll defer to the great and powerful Oz.

I should be available most of the day, so let's see how things go.

Kay,

Marvin is out of pocket right now. If we do not hear from David Hunt this morning, is there someone running backup for you?

Federal jurisdiction and limit of liability verbage. That's what comes to mind at this point.

Could you email me the most current version (I think it was March 3)?

Thanks,

Kay

You were reading my mind. What is the list of things he owes us? David F. and I will call Marvin to report on the status.

Reagan,

I haven't received an email from David Hunt yet. I will make the changes you and I discussed last week, and perhaps we will get David's changes sometime today.
