Congratulations and yes you did. I of course will be sad to see you go but I know this is something you really wanted and therefore I can be nothing but pleased for you. I'd tell you to have fun this weekend in NY, but telling you to have a good time in NY is like telling a sprinter to run fast.

As for myself I'm doing well. I had incredible seats at the Opera Friday and spent the rest of the weekend in Austin so all in all it was a great weekend. Remind me again where you will be based in the new job (I thought NY but wasn't sure). Also, when do you make the Big Move?

As I've said before keep me posted on all your endeavors...they are always interesting.

I think you already hold pretty true to the statement below, but it never hurts to be reminded.

"For a long time it had seemed to me that life was about to begin - real life. But there was always some obstacle in the way, something to be gotten through first, some unfinished business, time still to be served, or a debt to be paid. Then life would begin. At last it dawned on me that these obstacles WERE my "life."

So, treasure every moment that you have...and remember that time waits for no one...

So stop waiting until you finish school, until you go back to school,

until you lose ten pounds,

until you gain ten pounds,

until you have kids,

until your kids leave the house,
