> I don't like to relate sad news, but sometimes we need to pause and > remember what life is about:
> There was a great loss recently in the entertainment world. Larry LaPrise, > the Detroit native who wrote the song "Hokey Pokey," died last week at 83.
> It was especially difficult for the family to keep him in the casket.
> They'd put his left leg in, he'd put his left leg out.....and, well, you > know the rest.
